at Astoria. NEW YORK, November 27 .- The Times' mittee went down last session, and perhaps all Washington special says: The statement that the President has pardoned John Mitchell, is Mr. GROVES as Chairman, did not visit the untrue. He did not apply for pardon while at Southern Prison last session. He went, as Washington, but took the oath of allegiance. The Tribune's Washington special dispatch says: An ingenious scheme for smuggling whisky from Canada into the United States has just been detected. There were thirty-two women on board of a railway train bound for the United States, who held in their arms what at first appeared to be babies, carefully wrapped up, with their neat little feet exposed to the gaze of passengers. Upon investigation, it was discovered that they were tin cans, fashioned after the similitude of babies, containing from three to five gallons of whisky. About thirty of the women were arrested, and over one hundred gallons of whisky secured. Dr. Sayre says that the statement in the evening papers, that a case of cholera had occurred in this city, is unfounded

The evidences of such detention will be the certificate of Major Hayman, United States Army, Chief Mustering officer at Elmira,

The German citizens of th State publish a lengthy article protesting against the plan as a scheme to defraud slaves for the reason that uninformed German emigrants fall into the hands of the Company's agents, who are now in New York for the purpose of shipping a cargo of emigrants South. The attention of the military authorities in Montgomery has been called to the subject and some interference with the game is expected.

The President has just issued an order releasing from Fort Pulaski the rebel Secretary of War, Seddon, and Judge Magrath, of South Carolina. The order did not emanate from the Adjutant General's Department, but came direct from the President; hence arose the contradiction of previous reports that they had

When the claimant was domiciled in New Grenada, Mr. J. M. Carlisle, for Culumbia, argues that Mr. Freetz's ownership of the hotel domiciled him at Panama. Mr. Schox argued that Freetz never lost his domicil elsewhere, by simply owning the hotel; that Freetz never resided in Panama, and further, that by the treaty of 1846, he had official protection as a citizen of the United
